Sportsmanship Awards: Presented by Bill Pitts

This year marks the 43rd consecutive year for high school sportsmanship awards. The purpose is to honor the young people in the two city high schools who have consistently displayed the high ideals of good sportsmanship in their respective sports.

Students in 19 sports from both Anderson and Highland high schools were honored, and Bill Pitts noted the following characteristics:

- High-quality individuals
- Some may have Olympic/professional potential
- Nearly all, if not all, will attend college and several will attend college on an athletic scholarship
- Most importantly, these young people have always represented their school with dignity and pride, whether or not they win

- or lose during competition
- They compete fiercely, but fairly and honestly
- They truly represent what's good about today's youth

Each varsity coach is asked to choose an individual who best exemplifies good sportsmanship qualities and conduct. Generally, the nominee is a senior, but not always. The student athletes from each school have then chosen, from among themselves, an overall sportsmanship award winner who, in their estimation, best represents the ideal of good sportsmanship from their school.

The overall winner from Anderson was Rachel Warner. The daughter of Steve and Lynn, Rachel has earned five varsity letters, three in swimming and two in golf; she's been involved in SWIM, DOAG, National Honor Society, student council and Interact. She will attend Notre Dame to study law. Her coach, Rod Windlan, stated that, "Her attitude sets her apart—she always has a smile on her face no matter how she's performing."

Zach McCurdy was the overall winner from Highland. The son of Brachen and Terri, he has been involved in tennis, track (he holds a school and county record), National Honor Society and Senior Executive Council. He'll attend AU to study criminal justice and Spanish, and will also play tennis for the Ravens. His coach, Jim Hostetler, stated that Zach, "Has given senior leadership to tennis. He's hard working and dedicated—a very intense player." A complete list of nominees is listed on page 3.

Invocation, Pledge and 4-Way Test: Marlene Carey Rotary Moment No. 519, High School Sportsmanship Awards: Bill Pitts

The Anderson Rotary Club had already existed for 46 years when the late Charles Laughlin became our president. That was in 1964. Charles Laughlin was an executive of the Anderson Daily Bulletin, the predecessor of the Herald-Bulletin. He always had a great interest in sports including an association with the Anderson Packers NBA basketball team. (Yes, that is correct, the Anderson Packers NBA team, but that is another story.) Charlie felt strongly about good sports and sportsmen at all levels. As appropriate for a former sports editor of the Bulletin, it was very fitting that he proposed, and the club board of directors approved, the creation of annual awards recognizing high school good sportsmanship in each sport and an overall Mr. Sportsmanship, as it was called back then, in each school.

At the first awards day in 1965, athletes from the four local high schools were recognized. (St. Mary's has since ceased operation and the three public schools have now been consolidated into two.) Originally only boy's sports were recognized. Back then, girl's sports were much fewer in number and did not enjoy the level of support then than they do today. Beginning in 1978, both male and female athletes were recognized and the term Mr. Sportsmanship was eliminated as athletes of either gender became eligible for recognition as each school's overall sportsmanship award winner. Indeed, Judy Knotts of Madison Heights High School was the first female athlete recognized as an overall winner.

Charles Laughlin, who had later become a Rotary District Governor, died last fall. Today, in the 90th year of the Anderson Rotary Club, it is so good to see his idea continuing in the recognition of so many splendid high school athletes - sports men for the 43rd time - and sports women for the 30th time.
