Madison County Bar Association honors Richard Davisson with Community Services Award

Richard Davisson was awarded the Madison County Bar Association's Community Service Award at the annual meeting. This is the eighth year for the award, which has been presented each year at a joint ceremony hosted by Noon Rotary. David Happe, Bar Association President presented the award.

Thanks to a fund established at the Madison County Community Foundation by Charles and Hazel Dickmann for the Community Service Award, Mr. Davisson made a gift to the following charities of his choice: Paramount Theatre, $2500; YMCA, $2500; Youth for Christ, $1000.

Charles and Hazel Dickmann were presented a plaque in recognition of their generous and creative philanthropy. The Dickmann's have a long history of giving of both time and finances to the Madison County Community. Mr. Dickmann is an active and committed member of Anderson Noon Rotary.

*The Big Wheel – Page 2Halloween Party!

Where: Anderson Country Club

When: October 30, 5-8pm

Why: Service and Fun!!

Join us for a fun evening that will provide an opportunity for you and your family to have a fun social gathering and have dinner and participate in Trunk or Treat for young people in our community .

Interact is joining our club for the evening meeting to eat dinner with our guests from Alternatives, Dove Harbor and Mustin Women's Shelter.

There will be games and a costume contest after dinner. The evening wouldn't be complete without "Trunk or Treat" for our young guests.

The Halloween Party falls during World Interact Week. This gathering fits perfectly with one of the goals for this week: joint meeting and service project with the Rotary Club.
